

45th International Film Festival of India
20th-30th November 2014, Goa

Since 1952, India has hosted 44 International Film Festivals, both competitive and non-competitive. These festivals became annual events from 1975 onwards. The next festival, which includes a competition for feature films by directors from All Continents will be held in Goa and is the 45th edition.

FESTIVAL REGULATIONS

The Festival is being organised by the IFFI Secretariat for the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India in collaboration with the State Government of Goa and the Indian Film Industry. The Festival is recognised by the International Federation of Film Producers' Associations (FIAPF).

Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam
(The Whole World is One Family)

Objectives

The Festival aims at providing a common platform for the cinematography of the world to project the excellence of the film art; contributing to the understanding and appreciation of film cultures of different nations in the context of their social and cultural ethos; and promoting friendship and co-operation among people of the world.

1. Date and Place

The 45th edition of IFFI will be held from 20 – 30 November 2014, in Goa, India.

2. Regulations

The festival programme is broadly divided into the following categories

- i. International Competition for Feature Films (upto 18 numbers. Upto three Indian Films will be selected for this section. Fiction Films with a minimum duration of 70 minutes and above).
- ii. Non Competition – for feature films from around the world (Fiction Films with a minimum duration of 70 minutes and above)
- iii. Retrospectives, Tributes, Country Focus & other Specially curated packages (Indian & Foreign) and Premieres.
- iv. Indian Panorama – for Indian feature films censored between 01 September 2013 – 31 August 2014).
- v. Technical Workshops/Master classes/other Interactive & Academic sessions/Panel Discussions.
- vi. Film Bazaar (Film Market organized by the National Film Development Corporation of India).

3. IFFI Secretariat reserves the right to exclude films that are not in conformity with the philosophy and objective of the festival, or which could offend the feelings/ susceptibilities of any participating country, or are likely to promote discrimination of any kind.

4. International Competition

4.1 Films entered in the International Competition MUST fulfil the following conditions:

4.1.1 Films must be fiction, feature length films not less than 70 minutes in duration in original language soundtrack with English Subtitles. Films in English need not be subtitled.

4.1.2 They must have been completed between 1st September 2013 and 31st August 2014. Eligibility will be determined by the declaration made by the entrant in the film entry form. For International films where no proof is available, the date of the first theatrical screening will be considered as completion date.

4.1.3 Except for Indian films, the entries in this section should not have been released/ shown in India or presented in any other Indian Film Festivals before. Upto three Indian film entries in International Competition will be identified by the IFFI Film Preview & Recommendation Committee from the films for Indian Panorama 2014.

4.1.4 In the case of co-productions, at least one of the producers/production companies must have the right to sanction participation of the film in International Competition and also sanction the authority to receive awards, if the film wins any.

4.1.5 Entrants must agree that if their film/films win any of the Golden and/or Silver Peacock Awards, all screenings thereafter will acknowledge the Award(s) on the film itself.

4.2 Films for International Competition will be selected by the IFFI Secretariat following the recommendations of the Film Preview Committee constituted by the Director IFFI. The recommendations of the Committee and the selections made by the IFFI Secretariat will be considered as final and non-appealable. The festival holds the right to consider the films that are not accepted for the International Competition as entries for the 'Cinema of the World' Section. However, consent of the entrant shall be sought before selection and inclusion in the festival programme.

4.3 The competition will be held subject to the acceptance of a maximum of eighteen eligible films from different Continents/Countries. If selected for the International Competition, the entrant/s - must provide a 35mm print or a DCP with EST for festival screenings - must agree that in case of winning an award they will provide the festival with a DVD/ Blue ray copy of the film for archival purposes.

4.4 The Jury for the International Competition will consist of a Chairman and not less than two and not more than four other members, of which one member will be from India.

4.5 The decisions of the jury will be taken by a simple majority of the members present and voting. The jury can evolve its own rules for assessment of the entries. The Director - IFFI and/or his representative can attend the jury deliberations, but shall neither participate nor vote.

4.6 No person in any way connected with the production or commercial exploitation of a competitive entry will be a member of the jury. All members of the jury will refrain from releasing any articles or reviews to the press concerning the film submitted for their judgement until after jury's decision have been formally announced at the closing function.

4.6.1 Films in the official programme shall not be withdrawn from the festival programme before or during the event.
